

Take Flight – Leadership for High Performance Teams

The Program:

Take Flight gives your leaders insight into the characteristics of “World Class” teams, and how they can create the conditions for their teams to excel. The Emotional Intelligence model provides a framework for examining leadership styles, and guidelines for applying the right style at the right time. Leaders learn to create a team environment where trust, innovation and commitment flourish. Above all, they create their personal vision for “greatness” and a plan to get there.
